ENGAGE IN 2 EXPERIENCES OF URBAN EXPLORATION
• Visit the Field Museum’s Abbot Hall of Conservation: Restoring Earth Exhibit or the Peggy Notebaert Nature Museum.
• Ride a Divvy bike on campus or in Chicago.
• Visit one of Chicago’s local farmers’ markets.
• Attend an event at Hull House (Rethinking Soup) or tour the museum.
• Tour or volunteer at The Plant.

ENGAGE IN 2 EXPERIENCES OF INQUIRING MINDS
• Join a campus green student organization.
• Serve as an Office of Sustainability student committee representative.
• Attend a campus lecture on sustainability or climate change.
• Participate in a Study Abroad, Winter or Spring Break program that has a sustainability focus.
• Participate in a sustainability-related internship.
• Participate in the Annual Student Research Forum, presenting a sustainability-related research project.

ENGAGE IN 2 EXPERIENCES OF COMMUNITY
• Participate in the “Great Stuff Exchange” on campus.
• Participate in “Bike to Campus Week”.
• Volunteer at or attend a “Heritage Garden” event.
• Attend an event hosted by the Centers for Cultural Understanding and Social Change.
• Volunteer with the Office of Sustainability.
• Volunteer as a UIC Eco-Educator.

For more information, visit www.uicexperience.uic.edu.
The UIC Experience is a co-curricular opportunity that enhances students’ learning and development as tomorrow’s global leaders by reinforcing three key areas: urban exploration, intellectual inquiry, and engagement in a diverse community.

URBAN EXPLORATION

INQUIRING MINDS

COMMUNITY

The UIC Experience exists in Chicago’s world-class URBAN center where INQUIRING minds explore within a richly diverse campus COMMUNITY, with the goal of helping develop tomorrow’s global leaders.

www.uicexperience.uic.edu